

BĀKA Light House

“BĀKA” Light House is a former drainage pump station renewed by Rezekne municipality, Latvia, into the activities' center to promote water tourism. The building's facade is made with Cor-Ten material provided by Ruukki.

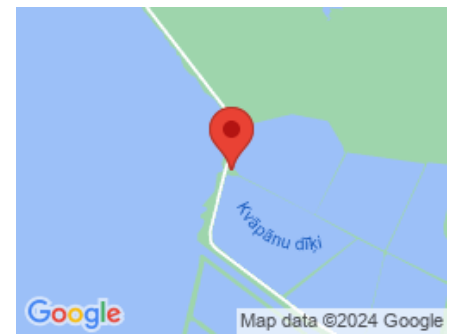

Related products

> Bespoke systems

Partners

- > Customer: Rezekne municipality
- > Construction company: SIA RALL
- > Architect: SIA SAALS

“BĀKA” Light House is a former drainage pump station renewed by Rezekne municipality, Latvia, into the activities' center to promote water tourism. The building's facade is made with Cor-Ten material provided by Ruukki.

