

Maritime Centre Vellamo

Maritime Centre Vellamo in Kotka is shaped like a large wave, and its facade sparkles like the rippling surface of water.

Related products

> Cladding Lamella Groove
20

Maritime Centre Vellamo in Kotka, Finland, is shaped like a large wave, and its facade sparkles like the rippling surface of water. This beautiful building houses the Maritime Museum of Finland and the Museum of Kymenlaakso.

The two layers of the external facade create an impression of depth and the sea. The inner layer structure is coated with multicoloured steel sheet cassettes. The structure of the outer layer consists of aluminium profiles and silkscreen printed glass.

Try watching this video on www.youtube.com

