Miroslav Mikulek s.r.o. is a family company founded by Miroslav Mikulek together with his son Miroslav Mikulek Jr. in 2007. The company has been focusing on earth works for more than ten years. Furthermore, they launched development activities and the construction of residential and multifunctional buildings was added to their activities. The red, which they chose for the facade of the company's headquarters, expresses action, fire and enthusiasm and it is a symbol of successful business. Ruukki supplied Ruukki Liberta® panels in red to the facade of the building. However, Ruukki offers facade cassettes in a wide range of colours and materials.
