

Uppsala Concert and Conference Hall

Uppsala Concert and Conference Hall was a challenging construction project.

The Uppsala Concert and Conference Hall was a challenging construction project: the design was characterised by long spans to support the large auditoriums, a fairly complex layout of levels and the advanced design of the spacious, balconied concert hall.